After an excellent season 1, season 2 has been filmed and picked up by HGTV Canada. The premier is Wednesday, Apr. 1 at 8:30 p.m. ET / 10:30 p.m. PT on HGTV Canada. The series regular timeslot is Wednesday nights at 8:30 p.m ET/10:30 p.m. PT. Season 2 Trailer News Release.... “THE STAGERS” returns for a second season packed full of stunning transformations that turn dull for-sale spaces into spectacular residences that shine in today’s real-estate market. This season, Matthew, Bridget and Maureen work to stage a range of homes while hustling to exceed client demands. Budgets and schedules are tight in the world of home staging which means our multi-tasking teams are always in the pressure cooker. From practical tricks on how to sell your home to the sparks that fly when the heat is on, each episode is a lesson in transforming a house from a first impression turn-off to a market gem.

Having a better understanding of this business is what the general population needs. I am constantly networking and shocked as well as disappointed that so few people know about Home Staging or Real Estate Marketing. Where as my favorites HGTV progs, (Design To Sell, The Unsaleables, Get it Sold) do a fair job of depicting what staging is and can do for the home seller. The Stagers break it down, although rather dramatically (oh, that's my business tag line - 'Add Some Drama to Your Home To Get Top Dollar!'  If you like watching The Stagers on HGTV get ready for Season 2, Monday April 6, 10:30PM pt/et. Expect more drama and chaos, as always!
